

REDEFINE AGING

No costly entrance fees, just affordable coastal living.

Chateau La Jolla is an affordable coastal living option for retirees, located in the Village of La Jolla. Our community consists of three 4-to-5-story buildings, we offer apartments that overlook the ocean, patios, a pool, daily activities, special events, and a community that is as organic as the surroundings.

Chateau La Jolla is only a half block from the beach, and three blocks from downtown La Jolla. Chateau La Jolla is a convenient, peaceful, and secure residential environment. Over the years, Chateau La Jolla has evolved into an active retirement option for those who want to live near the coast, affordably. For today's independent seniors, 55 years of age or better, looking for an exceptional living environment, we offer overnight & extended stays during which time you can better acquaint yourself with our community.
